

REMARKS

Upon review of the allowed claims, it was noticed that allowed claims 1 and 68 erroneously have the term "electronically" instead of "electrically". The originally filed claims 1-67 have the term "electrically". Therefore, this Amendment corrects this error. Originally objected to claim 13 had the limitation of the metallic cup electrically coupled to the first electrically conductive sheet of claim 1. The limitation of metallic cup was added to claim 1 in the Amendment of April 15, 2005.

Therefore, the undersigned requests that this Amendment be entered to correct this typographical mistake as well as adding the word "electrically" to claims 22 and 68 for consistency.

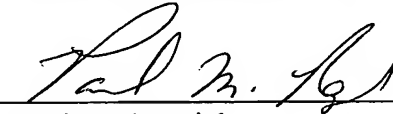

The Amendment corrects the errors of the claims and does not change the scope of the claims.

Entry of this Amendment is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
